

Easy Voter Guide

Application to Reprint: November 7, 2006 General Election

We invite newspapers to reproduce the nonpartisan Easy Voter Guide to help all Californians prepare for the upcoming November 7, 2006 General Election. The community-edited and expert reviewed content will feature succinct summaries of all statewide propositions, statements from candidates for statewide offices plus general information about the General Election.

With your agreement to the following terms, we will send you, free of charge, a link to an FTP site where you can download the Easy Voter Guide for the November 7, 2006 General Election, as well as the colors, fonts and formatting used in the development of the guide. The FTP site will be available for newspapers beginning the second week of September. You can download previous guides from www.easyvoter.org. For more information, please contact easyvoter@lwvc.org.

Your signature below affirms your agreement to these commitments:

- To present this material in a nonpartisan manner for nonpartisan purposes.
- To avoid creating the impression that the Easy Voter Guide endorses or opposes any proposition or candidate.
- To give acknowledgement to the Easy Voter Guide Project and www.easyvoter.org. A noticeable link to this website should be provided if Easy Voter Guide content is featured on a web page. You may choose buttons for linking at www.easyvoter.org.
- Not to share any part of the Easy Voter Guide with another party.
- If using segments of the material, to include all the material pro and con on a given issue, and all of the candidates for a given office.
- Send at least 4 copies of the edition(s) of your newspaper that used Easy Voter Guide content for our files to:
